

PAYMENT TERMS & CONDITIONS

Effective Date: August 03, 2026

These Payment Terms & Conditions ("Payment Terms") apply to purchases made from Room Ready Supply, including orders placed through the Room Ready Supply website, shopping cart and checkout system, and orders approved for post-delivery payment terms.

By placing an order, completing checkout, accepting delivery, or using approved payment terms, the customer agrees to the applicable terms below.

1. Website Cart & Checkout Payments

Customers may select products, add them to their shopping cart, and complete their order through the Room Ready Supply website checkout system.

Available payment methods will be displayed during checkout. Depending on the customer, order, and account status, payment may be required at checkout or an approved post-delivery payment option may be available.

Orders paid in full during checkout are not subject to the post-delivery payment deadlines or late-payment provisions described below.

2. Approved Post-Delivery Payment Terms

Customers who are approved for post-delivery payment terms must pay their invoice in full within 20 calendar days from the confirmed delivery date.

The confirmed delivery date, as documented by the applicable carrier, delivery service, or Room Ready Supply's delivery records, will be used to determine the beginning of the 20-day payment period.

Post-delivery payment terms are not automatically available to every customer or every order. Room Ready Supply reserves the right to determine eligibility for this payment option.

3. Payment Methods

Room Ready Supply accepts available approved payment methods, which may include credit or debit card, ACH/bank transfer, wire transfer, check, or other payment methods made available through the Room Ready Supply checkout system or directly by Room Ready Supply.

Payment is considered complete only when the full amount due has been successfully received and processed.

4. Partial Payments

Partial payments are not accepted unless specifically authorized in writing by Room Ready Supply.

Customers using post-delivery payment terms are responsible for paying the full outstanding invoice amount by the applicable due date.

5. Invoice Disputes

Customers must report any invoice discrepancy or dispute to Room Ready Supply within 14 calendar days of the invoice date.

Submitting a dispute does not automatically cancel or modify the customer's payment obligation. Room Ready Supply will review properly submitted disputes and make any necessary adjustments.

6. Late Payment

This section applies specifically to orders made using approved post-delivery payment terms.

If an invoice remains unpaid 30 calendar days after the confirmed delivery date, the invoice will be considered past due and a one-time late fee equal to 10% of the outstanding invoice balance will be applied.

The late fee will not be charged repeatedly on the same outstanding invoice.

7. Account Suspension

If an invoice under approved post-delivery payment terms remains unpaid 40 calendar days after the confirmed delivery date, the customer's Room Ready Supply account will be suspended.

During suspension, the customer will not be permitted to place new orders using their account or use any payment-term or credit privileges.

Account privileges may be restored after the customer pays the entire outstanding balance, including any applicable late fees, in full, subject to approval by Room Ready Supply.

8. Repeated Late Payments

If a customer incurs three late-payment fees within a single calendar quarter, Room Ready Supply reserves the right to close the customer's account.

Account closure may result in the permanent loss of post-delivery payment privileges and the ability to place additional orders with Room Ready Supply.

9. Returned or Failed Payments

Room Ready Supply does not impose a separate returned-payment or failed-payment fee under these Payment Terms.

However, a failed or returned payment does not extend the original payment deadline or eliminate any outstanding payment obligations.

10. Collection and Legal Costs

Room Ready Supply does not routinely refer unpaid accounts to a third-party collection agency under these Payment Terms.

However, when legal action or other permitted recovery measures become necessary to recover an unpaid balance, the customer may be responsible for reasonable costs and expenses associated with pursuing payment, including reasonable legal or attorney fees, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

11. Returns and Refunds

Returns, refunds, exchanges, damaged goods, shortages, and related matters are governed by Room Ready Supply's separate Return & Refund Policy.

An expected return, refund, or adjustment does not automatically suspend an outstanding payment obligation unless Room Ready Supply confirms otherwise in writing.

12. Early Payment

Room Ready Supply does not currently provide an automatic discount for early payment unless a separate written agreement, promotion, checkout offer, or invoice specifically states otherwise.

13. Credit Limits

Room Ready Supply does not maintain a standard credit limit under these Payment Terms.

Room Ready Supply reserves the right to review, approve, restrict, or decline orders or post-delivery payment privileges based on account standing, outstanding balances, order history, payment history, or other reasonable business considerations.

14. Modification or Suspension of Payment Privileges

Room Ready Supply reserves the right to modify, reduce, suspend, or discontinue a customer's post-delivery payment privileges based on payment history, repeated late payments, outstanding balances, account activity, or other reasonable business considerations.

Any modification to a customer's payment privileges does not eliminate or reduce amounts already owed.

15. Governing Law

These Payment Terms will be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of North Carolina, without regard to its conflict-of-law principles.

16. Acceptance of Terms

By submitting an order through the Room Ready Supply website, completing checkout, or placing an order using approved post-delivery payment terms, the customer acknowledges that they have reviewed, understood, and agreed to the applicable Payment Terms & Conditions.

Customers using approved post-delivery payment terms accept responsibility for paying all amounts due in accordance with the deadlines and requirements stated above.
